Rich Prints Overseas is one of the reputed companies in India manufacturing delicately woven ladies shawls, scarves and stoles.

ABOUT US

RICH PRINTS OVERSEAS is one of the reputed companies in India manufacturing delicately woven ladies shawls, scarves and stoles. With the backing of a team of skilled professionals, we have been designing an innovative range of ladies winter items that have gone on to capture the fancy of enthralled customers not only in India but all over the world. We are now a global company manufacturing beautifully designed items for the last 34 years.

Being a client-oriented firm all our business operations are tailored to derive 100% customer satisfaction. This has all been possible because of our efficient team working tirelessly to stay in tune with the latest market trends, designs and technologies. We are a company that is an amalgamation of fine quality, workmanship and transparent deals and business operations from our unit in Jalandhar in Punjab.

Furthermore, we are well equipped with modern tools and other facilities that enhance and aid us in the manufacturing of our beautifully crafted items. With the latest machinery, we weave elegant ladies winter items that offer maximum warmth at the minimum prices that can be availed of in the market anywhere in India. Every item is lightweight, colourfast, and vibrant with unique colour combinations. That is why our products are so applauded and appreciated the world over. Every raw material that goes into the manufacturing of our items is sourced from the best vendors in North India. Rich Prints Overseas is a name that can be relied upon and trusted for quality.
