The RSP World is headquartered in Rampur (Uttar Pradesh). This company commenced its journey in 2019. Ours is a team of dedicated professionals. All are engaged in serving clients. The collective efforts of our workforce have been bearing fruits for us to establish a flourishing clientele in and around Uttar Pradesh.

The Storage

The RSP World owns a spacious storehouse. Constructed with distinguished sections, all agro-food products like fresh fruits, vegetables, Basmati rice, and wheat seeds are stored separately. We store the red chilies and red chili powder under the same roof. The storehouse we own is properly ventilated and protected from any type of rodent invasion.

Research & Development Team

The R&D team working for us is an integral part of our success in the market. The team works for understanding the requirement of our clients. Their ground reports help us in improving the marketing strategy and enhance the business approach.

Why Us?

You should choose The RSP World for purchasing agro-food items and spices because we do not have secondary charges for our supplying services. We just charge the price along with the GST. Moreover, our teams assure on-time delivery of all orders received. On special request, we can provide the service of same day delivery with additional charges.
