ABOUT US

Sivasangaran Industrial Instruments is a name that is enlisted amidst the preeminent organizations that are offering a wide range of optimum quality hardware fittings. Based in Pondicherry (India), we serve as a remarkable manufacturer, exporter and supplier of LED timers, strip heater, nozzle heaters, temperature controllers, electric heater controller, resistance temperature detector, band heater, cartridge heater, thermocouple wire, thermocouple sensor, electronic thermocouple, and extruder thermocouple. The above-mentioned range of hardware fittings are manufactured by using fine quality raw materials, which are procured directly from our highly reliable vendors in the industry. We are selling these products in different stores across India and other countries abroad at a reasonable price range.

Deeply rooted in India, Sivasangaran Industrial Instruments is one of the well-known fraternities that are engaged in manufacturing, exporting and supplying the fine quality wires, heaters, sensors, LED timers and various others. The brilliant mind behind the establishment of our organization is Mr. Sivasangaran (CEO). He laid the foundation stone of the company in the year 2018.

Our Inventory

We manufacture a large assortment of hardware fittings at our well-structured inventory. Our inventory is segregated into separate units for processing, warehousing, logistics, quality testing, and research & development. It allows us to finish our consignments in a proficient, smooth and timely manner.

Warehousing Unit

We are backed by a spacious warehousing unit, which helps us in storing large consignments at a time in a safe manner. It is supervised by our meticulous warehouse keepers.

Why Us?

We are a firm that is highly reputed in the market for various reasons. Some of them are:

- Excellent vendor base
