ABOUT US

A magnificent Peepal Tree was once just a seed! The seed had the potential to grow into the beautiful majestic form. All it needed was a little bit of water, soil and sunlight everyday. Samatva Vibrational Healing was similarly seeded in 2016 by its proprietor Dr. Sindhu Kripalani, who is an Ayurvedic doctor and believes very strongly in the power of nature to heal. Samatva Vibrational Healing believes in formulating natural products using minimalistic ingredients and keeping it simple yet very effective because the raw materials used are sourced out from natures very best. We do not compromise on quality. Samatva Vibrational Healing strongly believes if your core ingredients are pure, virtuous and rightly procured and processed, the end product is bound to be of unmatched quality.

Samatva Vibrational Healing started with a small range of 4 categories of products gradually expanding to a fair range of products that are a class apart. A lot of thought, research and trial goes into each product before it's formulation is finalised and goes into production. There has been a strong need felt to formulate and educate the people about the effectiveness of minimalistic herbal products which go a long way in bringing a healthy body and mind.

Samatva Vibrational Healing has 3 verticals of products and services

1. Healing and wellness
2. Organic skin care
3. Personal consultation and guidance
