SP FARMS

SP FARMS is one of the top leaders in the manufacturing of natural coconut oil and Coconut Copra. It has been in present for more than a decade making its significant mark in the industry. Our diverse collection of products starts from fresh mango to dry mango. We deal in coconut oil as well. All these products are organic and devoid of any harmful and chemical-based additives.

SP Farms has been devoted to a clean manufacturing infrastructure from its beginning, with a focus on the development of fresh mango and coconut oil. Additionally, the organization uses cutting-edge machinery and equipment to form premium formulae for different quality products.

Our research and development (R & D) team is energetically creating new products based on essential oils, cosmetic raw materials, herbal extracts, and fragrances oil while keeping purity and authenticity.

Our team cautiously packs our high-quality organic oils and other natural products in defensive packaging to ensure safe delivery. According to the quantity, each product is packaged in a variety of sizes of boxes, bottles, and containers.

Based in Theni, Tamil Nadu, the company is owned and managed by Mr. Jegathesan. A (Owner). He has made sincere efforts to get better our organization's success towards unique success in the market. We also accept bulk orders and make on-time delivery. We give assurance for the best quality products.
