About Us

SaiVinayak Farms alias SVFarms, a company established with an aim to Supply Organic Food such as Country Chicken and Farm Fresh Eggs, Fruits and Vegetables directly from Farm to Consumers. Our products are healthy, which has its own growing period naturally without any artificial add on's.

We are also into Fresh Homemade Foods cooked directly from the Southern Kitchen of each homemaker. We are active partners in Women empowerment where in each of our products are exclusively cooked and packed by an extraordinary homemaker. Every product of our's will have the Actual Chef's name who cooked the delight with her heart and soul. 100% no preservatives, artificial colors and assurance on taste. Every single purchase of the product will make a month's salary for the Women who wanted to prove the society that she can be financially independent without compromising on her family welfare.

Our Team

Our Company is a partnership firm with investors from various sectors.

It is represented by its Managing Directors Mr Prithvi and Ms Padmaja who are Engineers by profession.

Their interest towards organic farming and healthy lifestyle has made them open SV Farms – Vidai in order to deliver fresh, tasty and healthy nourishment to the consumers.
