ABOUT US

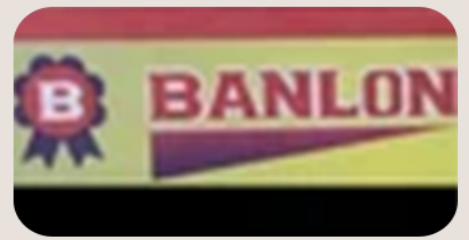

Banlon Traders is a well-established and trusted organization engaged in manufacturing, exporting, supplying, trading, and retailing premium quality watch straps and accessories. Founded in 1972, the company has built a strong reputation in the global market by consistently delivering stylish, durable, and precision-engineered watch strap solutions. Under the dynamic leadership of Ms. Monica Shah, Banlon Traders continues to expand its product portfolio while maintaining strong customer relationships.

The company offers an extensive range of products including leather watch straps, silicone and rubber watch straps, stainless steel watch straps, NATO straps, nylon straps, and various strap accessories. Each product is developed using high-grade raw materials, ensuring superior comfort, elegant design, and long-lasting durability. The organization focuses on blending traditional craftsmanship with modern design trends to meet the evolving fashion and functional demands of customers.

Banlon Traders follows strict quality control processes, reliable supply chain management, and customer-focused service standards. Supported by a skilled workforce, the company ensures timely delivery and competitive pricing across global markets. With decades of industry experience, Banlon Traders remains committed to innovation, quality excellence, and delivering value-driven strap solutions, making it a dependable choice for watch strap requirements worldwide.
