About Us

Incepted in the year 2020, Vakul is a specialist in manufacturing, supplying, and retailing a wide range of readymade garments. The product portfolio of the company includes men's t-shirts, men's hoodies, ladies' t-shirts, ladies' hoodies and more. The offered menswear and ladies' wear are widely appreciated for their quality, contemporary styles, exquisite designs, long-lastingness, etc. Based in Aizawl (Mizoram), we have not only established a strong foothold in the local markets but also made a significant presence in various cities of India in a short span of time.

Fabrics and other materials used for manufacturing our garment range are of optimum quality. We give the assurance that the product range that we offer complies with the specified quality standards and norms. With the assistance of our diligent team, we have made numerous happy customers countrywide. Our highly efficient professionals better understand the exact needs of customers and ensure that they are served in an appropriate manner. Further, we ensure the proper training of our staff members on a regular basis so that they can match with the ever-changing business environment.

We have advanced machines and tools including sewing machines, finishing machines, etc. in our manufacturing unit. This enables us to accomplish all our orders smoothly within the wanted time period. We also ensure the improvisation of our machines and implementation of new technology on regular basis to improve our production rate and meet the emerging demands of our customers properly. Maintaining the highest quality standards consistently is our top priority and thus, we make our garments go through rigorous quality checks before bringing them to the market. We also value timely deliveries and also stay focused to avoid any sort of problem during transit.
