About Us

VIHAAN ORGANICS, based in Goa, is a sole proprietorship business firm that is involved in supplying and trading a wide assortment of agro products. Processed using advanced techniques, our products are known for unmatched quality, high nutrients, long shelf life, etc.

Our product range includes basmati rice, non-basmati rice, pulses, wheat seed, millet seeds, sorghum seeds, maize seeds, etc. We obtain our products from trusted sources across the market and ensure that the entire product range is processed in a hygienic manner. We cater to the various requirements of numerous individuals, retail stores, grocery shops, hotels, restaurants, food product manufacturing companies, etc. The company is recently founded in 2022 and works with an aim to become a leading organization in the industry.

The agro products that we procure from our vendors are stored carefully at our spacious, temperature-controlled storage facility so as to maintain their safety and hygiene. We make proper, moisture-free, leak-proof packing of our products ensuring their freshness and long shelf life. Our products are also available in various customized packaging options as per the requirements of buyers.

We make sure that all of our agro products go through a proper quality check process at the vendor's place before being shifted to our storage facility. We take all possible initiatives to surpass our customer's expectations and make them happy. The factors that make us one of the best agro-product suppliers in India are our premium product quality, ethical trade practices, excellent transport facility, fast delivery, and market-leading price range.
