SHRINE TRADERS is a prominent trader and supplier of high-quality lubricants, sealants, adhesives, glue gels, sealing thread cords, high-strength retaining compounds, retainer cylinder compounds, etc. Established in the year 2020, the company is located in New Delhi (India). Under the leadership of Mr. Pankaj Thakur, the CEO of the company, we are relentlessly working for establishing a distinguished position for ourselves in the Indian market. Owing to his in-depth knowledge and market experience, we are thriving in this industry.

The aforementioned products are of reputed brands such as Loctite and Polyfix which adheres to the universally accepted quality standards. Adopting ethical trade practices, our company has managed to carve a niche in the market within just a few years. We are reckoned to provide complete satisfaction to our clients by catering to their needs with sincerity.

We have a well-established business network that is widely spread in different parts of the country. The network is well-supported with proper distribution facilities that assist in supplying the products to customers based in various cities of India. Furthermore, our strong networking has played a pivotal role in increasing our customers in the market.

Owing to our quality products and prompt services, our clientele is increasing day by day which proves the genuineness of the products and our dependability. Our endeavor is always to maintain long-term association with our valued clients while attaining their continued satisfaction.
