Nondual Xim is a leading rice and millets exporter. Our group is involved in this business. Based in Chennai, we are an authorized exporter of high-quality pulses, blended and whole spices, ready-made garments and some essential farm products. With our long experience in this sector, we have excellent knowledge of these products.

As a most trustable name in this sector, we possess the expertise to offer the perfect solutions to our clients. From sourcing numerous types of products to tasting, and personalising blends we are a pioneer in offering the best product. With a team of highly trained staff and a highly advanced packaging unit, we meet every need of our clients. Some of the largest brands across the globe love to take products from us.

We export our products all over the world. We at Nondual Xim are associated with value for money. We always try to maintain a quality standard in our products. We check the quality of our tea products before dispatching them to maintain the quality consistency. This makes us capable of satisfying each of our customers.

The aroma, distinctive flavour and fullness of our products are the key reason for our success. Our products are packed in value-added packets, tins and pouches. This helps us deliver our products with the utmost perfection and care. Contact us now to know our full inventory of products.
