ABOUT US

We implement our reach to innovative solution-based products with our own Research and Development laboratory. We stand eccentric with the efficacy & visibility of our products that are eminent in terms of ingredients, solutions, and results.

We mark our presence among all leading dermatologists in India. We manufacture high quality derma products for face, body and hair care with the participation of the name famed product analysts and dermatologists.

Our team includes product analysts, product consultants, product manager zonal heads, regional sales heads, area sales heads, and sales executives which makes our team a big family with 152 members.

Working particularly on Indian climatic conditions and market needs we stand abreast being the only ones with products that are well-approved and tested by top dermatologists on Indian human skins, our selections of products are a blend of generosity, efficacy, quality, purity, approval, and trust of dermats with charm and glamour for beauty industry making them Cosmo derma.

Today's consumer knows much about ingredients than we think. One has to be up-to-date on the latest cutting-edge ingredients and technology in the cosmeceutical world. Hence, after adding innovative products to strengthen the shelves of the clinics we move a step ahead with information about those products with our live demo and training sessions from time to time. This later on moves ahead with interaction where we take care of all queries and provide back-to-back support through our team of product consultants, trainers, dermats, and nutritionists grooming customers way ahead with one-stop solutions.
