Since its establishment in 2019, Anjali Metals has been manufacturing and supplying the best range of stainless steel pipe & fittings, duplex pipes, fasteners, valves and more. We are a vibrant business committed to offering a broad selection of high-quality products to satisfy the various demands of our esteemed consumers. And aspire to be a world leader in the supply of duplex and stainless steel solutions.

About Us

Our wide selection comprises duplex pipes, butt weld fittings, forged fittings, flanges, ferrule fittings, fasteners, valves, and a variety of plates and sheets in addition to stainless steel pipes and fittings. Our speciality is providing premium products, including forged steel caps, duplex welded pipes, stainless steel barrel nipples and an extensive selection of valves and fasteners.

We use strict quality control procedures to guarantee that every product that leaves our warehouse satisfies the highest standards set by the industry. We put our duplex and stainless steel solutions through rigorous inspections to ensure compliance, accuracy, and longevity.

We pursue constant innovation and client satisfaction under the inspiring direction of our owner, Mr. Sirish Solanki. His commitment to excellence and customer-focused strategies has helped our business reach new heights. Please feel free to contact him with any questions or to work with him.

As we continue to set the standard for quality and dependability in the delivery of duplex and stainless steel products, we invite you to journey with us.
