Located in the centre of Kanyakumari, where the Indian Ocean laps at the coast and the sun casts warm hues across the sky, Ray's Traders is a proud maker and seller of semi-husked coconuts. Tucked away in the colourful tapestry of Tamil Nadu, our story started with a desire to grow and ship the best coconuts to people's homes all over the world.

Excellence in Craftsmanship:

We at Ray's Traders are proud of the work we do. Every semi-husked coconut that emerges from our hands bears witness to the commitment and skill that went into its production. Our coconuts come from the lush plains of Kanyakumari, where they are painstakingly grown and perfectly solidified. We think that nature can alchemize, turning ordinary coconuts into exquisite items for your table.

Quality that Speaks Volumes:

In a field where deeds speak louder than words, Ray's Traders has established itself as a leader in quality. Our dedication to providing unmatched quality semi-husked coconuts is unshakable. Every coconut that graces your kitchen is a testimonial to the richness of our land and the purity of our roots because we uphold stringent standards.

Beyond Business:

Ray's Traders is a community as much as a company. We are aware of the connection between the wealth of the land that supports us and our success. As part of our promise to give back to the community that has influenced us, we are committed to sustainable and ethical practices. Our goal is to create a connection that goes beyond business with each coconut.
