Sujal Moorti Art Gallery transforms dreams into marble sculptures. Our gallery is a centre for artistic handicraft located in Jaipur, Rajasthan. We carve tales onto marble monuments, depict devotion, and encapsulate cultural essence. Every statue is an embodiment of purity, passion, and accuracy.

Our Craftsmanship

Our artists are artists by nature. They pour their souls into each monument they create. They treat marble as though it were a live material. They painstakingly sculpt each detail with deft hands. Our sculptures are more than just portraits. They are classic pieces of art. Our works exude grace and tranquillity, from complex human figures to lifelike deities.

Our Inspirations

India's rich customs and history serve as an inspiration to us. We respect the history of Rajasthan, the country of art. Around us, there are old statues, palaces, and temples that inspire creativity. This effect aids in maintaining our connection to our cultural history. It enables us to create sculptures that establish a link between the past and present. Sujal Moorti Art Gallery's statues are all made with care for Indian customs.

Our Process

We value patience and accuracy. We use a systematic approach, starting with the best marble selection and ending with the final polish. We carefully choose our marble from high-quality quarries. Our skilled artisans shape it after it has been chosen. We employ both contemporary methods and conventional instruments to breathe life into the sculptures.
