Shah Sanitation was established in the year 2008 in Delhi, India. We are a manufacturer and supplier of PTMT taps, showers, Quartz Single Bowl Kitchen Sink, ABS Health Faucet with SS Tube and a lot more. We are actively engaged in manufacturing and supplying a wide variety of superior-quality products.

The products that we offer are made using the best quality materials and machines. These products are largely appreciated for their supreme quality, fine finish, great strength, and long service life. Our products are widely used in different household activities. All these products are available in a wide range of sizes and specifications.

Our Factory

To manufacture the most advanced products at a rapid pace, we have maintained a state-of-the-art factory in Delhi. This factory is installed with precision-engineered machines and tools. By making use of these machines and tools, we have increased our production capacity as well.

Our Team

A team of some of the most dedicated and experienced professionals is there to handle all our company operations well. Our team includes engineers, supervisors, technicians, delivery experts, packaging experts, semi-skilled workers, etc.
