Tucked away in the thriving town of Thoothukudi, Tamil Nadu, GDM Global Exports is a shining example of quality and freshness. Getting the greatest fruits in the world to your table straight from our orchards was the humble beginning of our adventure.

Our Roots

In Thoothukudi, agriculture is a way of life rather than merely a means of subsistence. We have farmed this land for many generations, therefore we have strong links to it. Our accomplishments provide witness to our commitment. Every fruit piece we exchange represents our labour of love. Our enthusiasm fuels our commitment to upholding the highest agricultural standards.

Quality

Our motto is quality. Every fruit is chosen by hand to ensure that it satisfies our exacting requirements. We guarantee freshness to you. We support environmentally friendly agricultural methods. We preserve our fruits without the use of dangerous chemicals by employing natural ways. We aim to provide you with wholesome, tasty products.

Our Variety

We provide a wide variety of fruits. Our assortment pleases every palate, with options ranging from juicy pomegranates to sweet bananas, and from luscious mangoes to crisp apples. For the finest flavour, each variety has been carefully selected. We take pleasure in offering fruits at their prime as we recognise that each fruit has a certain season.

GDM Global Exports is not your average neighbourhood dealer. We now have a significant presence in global marketplaces. Our fruits are sent to homes and people all over the world, offering a taste of Thoothukudi.
