ABOUT US

Hem Deep Farm is a passionate manufacturer and supplier based in Goalpara, Assam, established in 2022 by Mr. Upesh Chakravarti. We are committed to nurturing a healthier future through sustainable agricultural practices.

Our Mission

At Hem Deep Farm, we believe in fostering a deeper connection between people and the land. We are dedicated to providing high-quality nursery plants, agricultural products, and organic fertilizers to empower individuals and communities to grow their own food and cultivate a more sustainable lifestyle.

Our Vision

We envision a world where sustainable agriculture becomes the norm, not the exception. We strive to be a leading force in promoting eco-friendly practices, offering accessible resources, and fostering a vibrant agricultural community.

Our Values

Environmental Responsibility : We prioritize practices that minimize our impact on the environment. We are committed to soil health, water conservation, and organic farming methods.

Quality and Innovation : We are dedicated to providing superior products, from our meticulously nurtured nursery plants to our potent vermiwash insecticide and dry oyster mushrooms. We continuously explore new methods to enhance our offerings and stay at the forefront of sustainable agriculture.

Community and Collaboration : We believe in building a network of passionate individuals who share our commitment to a greener future. We actively engage with our customers, offering guidance and support to help them achieve their agricultural goals.
