Kur Overseas was founded with the specific goal of supplying the globe with the best White Sella Basmati Rice from the lush interior of India. We have our roots in one of the most fertile rice regions in the nation, East Godavari, Andhra Pradesh. Every grain, every harvest, we know rice inside and out. As a small, dedicated staff, we set out to offer quality, flavour, and purity in every bag we sent.

Why White Sella Basmati Rice?

White Sella Basmati Rice is an experience rather than merely rice. This kind is a representation of Indian tradition, distinguished by its extra-long grains and nutty scent. We at Kur Overseas take great delight in carefully choosing every grain. Our group collaborates with farmers. This commitment enables our clients to provide the best for their clientele.

Our Commitment to Quality

Here, quality is a guarantee rather than simply a term. We meticulously monitor every stage, from field to packing. We don't take any shortcuts. We guarantee that every shipment is faultless by using stringent testing procedures and regular quality inspections. Modern technology in our facilities allows us to process rice hygienically. You receive rice that is ideal for any meal and devoid of contaminants.

Partners You Can Trust

Relationships are crucial at Kur Overseas. We create alliances in addition to delivering grains. We customise our services to meet your demands, regardless of how big or small your company is. We take great satisfaction in our open lines of communication and unwavering client service. Your pleasure is our first goal; it is not an afterthought. We are here to maintain confidence because we think it builds one shipment at a time.
