C S Industries is the top manufacturer and supplier of premium main gate door handles. Situated in the vibrant metropolis of Ludhiana, Punjab, we take great pleasure in both our work and the community we support.

● Our Craftsmanship

We combine history and innovation at C S Industries. Our craftspeople make long-lasting door handles by fusing traditional methods with cutting-edge technology. Each handle is evidence of our dedication to both design and craftsmanship. We conduct trials with various materials and finishes to produce items that are visually appealing and useful.

● Our Product Range

Our selection of main gate door knobs is extensive. For historic houses, we provide timeless designs, and for modern homes, we offer sleek, contemporary layouts. To guarantee functionality and endurance, every component is put through a rigorous quality inspection. We use the best materials available to make our handles, which range from brass to stainless steel.

● Customer-Centric Approach

We pay attention to your tastes and demands, then we tailor our items to fit your particular look. From selection to installation, our staff guarantees a flawless experience with personalised care. We appreciate your input and work hard to make our services better every day.

● Sustainable Practices

At C S Industries, sustainability is a fundamental principle. We use environmentally friendly production techniques and ethical material sourcing. We aim to provide top-notch products while reducing our environmental impact. You are demonstrating your support for sustainability and a greener future by selecting us.
