About Us

Kartik Enterprises, established by Mr. Pardip Desai in 2023, is a premier Supplier, Trader, Service Provider specializing in a comprehensive range of electrical components and systems. Based in Pune, Maharashtra, our company stands at the forefront of the electrical industry, committed to delivering high-quality products that cater to diverse needs and applications.

Our product portfolio is extensive and includes essential components such as electric capacitors, relays, transformers, circuit boards, and IGBT modules. We are dedicated to providing solutions that meet the highest standards of performance and reliability. Our offerings also encompass cooling fans, electric switches, and MCBs (Miniature Circuit Breakers), ensuring that we cover various aspects of electrical and electronic needs.

We pride ourselves on our innovative approach and technological advancements. Our range of products includes precision instruments like the Multispan VAW 34 DC Volt Meter and the Meco Digital Panel Meter, designed for accurate and efficient performance. We also provide specialized items such as the Schneider Electric LC1E25A Power Contactor and the Alcon 30A 50MA CT EMF DC Converter, which reflect our commitment to quality and reliability.

At Kartik Enterprises, we understand the importance of durability and efficiency in electrical components. This is evident in our selection of high-performance items like the 100 KVA Servo Controlled Voltage Stabilizers and the 3 KVA Servo Controlled Voltage Stabilizer, designed to protect and enhance the functionality of electrical systems. Our inventory also includes high-quality resistors, solder wire, and terminal connectors, catering to both industrial and commercial needs.

Our ethos is built on trust, innovation, and customer satisfaction. We strive to offer products that not only meet but exceed industry standards. With a dedicated team and a strong focus on quality, Kartik Enterprises is poised to be a leading player in the electrical components sector, supporting our clients with reliable products and unparalleled service.
