Founded in 2003, Macman International has established itself as a leader in exporting premium-quality farm-fresh vegetables and organic FMCG home cleaning products. With over two decades of experience, we have evolved to meet the changing demands of both domestic and international markets, expanding our product line to include fresh produce alongside our trusted organic cleaning solutions

Our Expertise in Fresh Vegetable Exports

Building on our solid reputation, Macman International is now at the forefront of exporting a wide range of farm-fresh vegetables sourced directly from the best farms in India. Our fresh produce is carefully selected, packed, and shipped from Kolkata Port to ensure it reaches international markets in the best condition. We prioritize freshness, taste, and quality, offering vegetables like onions, potatoes, green chilies, tomatoes, and other seasonal produce, all harvested at peak ripeness to guarantee superior flavor and nutritional value.

Organic FMCG Cleaning Products

While our new focus is on delivering high-quality vegetables, we continue to offer our renowned organic home cleaning products. Designed with sustainability in mind, our eco-friendly cleaning solutions are both effective and safe for households and the environment. Whether it's our popular hand wash, dishwash gel, or floor cleaner, you can trust that every product is made with natural, non-toxic ingredients.

Why Choose Macman International ?

- Farm-to-Table Freshness: Our vegetables are sourced directly from farms, ensuring you get the freshest produce every time
- Global Reach: With a strong network of export channels, we deliver our products to clients across the globe, ensuring timely and reliable shipments.
- Commitment to Quality: From farm produce to cleaning products, we adhere to the highest quality standards, maintaining stringent checks at every stage.
- Sustainability: We are dedicated to sustainable practices, whether it's in our farming techniques or our eco-friendly cleaning solutions.
- Customer-Centric Approach: At Macman International, we build long-term relationships based on trust, transparency, and exceptional service. Our clients are at the heart of everything we do.
