Established in 1997, Arihant Industries has been a trusted name in the textile industry for over 28 years. We specialize in manufacturing and exporting cotton, polyester, viscose, and linen greige fabrics along with a variety of finished fabrics including canvas, poplin, twill, drill, and lycra.

From humble beginnings, we have grown into one of India's leading fabric manufacturers and exporters, with an annual production capacity of 42 million meters. Our dedication to quality, innovation, and ethical business practices has made us a preferred partner for both domestic and international buyers.

We combine state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities with decades of experience to deliver fabrics that meet the highest global standards. With continuous investments in R&D, infrastructure, and skilled manpower, Arihant Group has evolved from a weaving company to a complete textile solutions provider.

Our Legacy – 28 Years of Excellence

Celebrating 28 years of uninterrupted service and innovation, Arihant Industries stands as a symbol of consistency, trust, and excellence. Over nearly three decades, we have:

- Expanded production capacity to cater to both domestic and export markets.
- Developed expertise in multiple fibers including cotton, polyester, viscose, and linen.
- Built strong relationships with customers across the globe. Consistently delivered on-time and as per exact specifications.

Our journey blends traditional craftsmanship with modern manufacturing techniques, ensuring we stay ahead in the competitive textile industry.

Leadership

Founded and managed by Mr. Sanjay Jain and Mr. Ritesh Jain, Arihant Group thrives under visionary leadership. Their in-depth industry knowledge and commitment to excellence have transformed the company into a leader in the Indian and international textile markets.

Commitment to Quality

We follow a stringent quality management system, monitoring every stage of production – from raw material procurement to final dispatch. Our in-house R&D and quality control teams ensure all fabrics meet both domestic and international benchmarks.

Financial Strength

With a turnover of ₹200 Crores in the last financial year, Arihant Group continues to achieve strong growth, backed by a loyal customer base and operational excellence.

TEXTILE FINISHING SERVICES

Textile finishing services enhance the quality, appearance, and performance of fabrics after they are woven or knitted. These services include processes like dyeing, printing, coating, and special treatments such as water repellency, flame resistance, or anti-bacterial finishes. By applying the right finishing techniques, textiles can achieve improved durability, comfort, and functionality tailored to specific end uses. Whether for fashion, home textiles, or industrial applications, finishing services add value and meet industry standards. Partnering with a professional textile finishing provider ensures consistency, quality control, and innovation in the final product.
