About Us

Established in 2018, CR Wave Automation is a diversified export-oriented trading company based in Ajmer, Rajasthan, India. The company operates as a reliable Exporter, Supplier, and Trader, serving customers across worldwide markets with a strong focus on quality, consistency, and customer satisfaction.

CR Wave Automation deals in a carefully selected range of products including Phool Makhana, Disposable Utensils, Marble Handicrafts, and Fresh Red Onion. Our diverse product portfolio enables us to cater to multiple industries such as food and agriculture, hospitality, retail, and interior décor. Each product is sourced from trusted manufacturers and producers to ensure superior quality, hygiene, and compliance with international standards.

Quality assurance is central to our operations. We follow strict sourcing, handling, and packaging practices to preserve product freshness, durability, and aesthetic appeal. Our Phool Makhana and fresh red onions are selected for their purity, taste, and shelf life, while disposable utensils meet hygiene and safety norms. Our marble handicrafts reflect skilled craftsmanship, elegant design, and long-lasting finish, making them suitable for global markets.

With an efficient supply chain and a customer-focused approach, CR Wave Automation ensures timely deliveries, competitive pricing, and customized solutions based on buyer requirements. We support bulk orders, private labeling, and export-oriented packaging to meet diverse international demands.

Driven by integrity, transparency, and long-term partnership goals, CR Wave Automation aims to strengthen its global presence by delivering reliable products and professional service. Our commitment to excellence positions us as a trusted trading partner for clients worldwide.
