Established in 2022, P3R Ventures Pvt. Ltd. is a professionally managed manufacturer, exporter, supplier, trader, and distributor of high-quality feminine hygiene products, headquartered in Mustafapur, Patna, Bihar, India. The company was founded with a strong vision to promote women's health, comfort, and dignity by providing safe, affordable, and reliable sanitary care solutions to global markets.

We specialize in A Grade Sanitary Pads, Premium Sanitary Pads, and Loose Sanitary Pads, designed to offer superior absorption, comfort, and skin safety. Our products are manufactured using carefully selected raw materials and advanced production techniques to ensure softness, breathability, and leak protection. Each pad is developed to meet the hygiene needs of women across different lifestyles and age groups.

At P3R Ventures Pvt. Ltd., quality assurance and compliance are central to our operations. Our manufacturing processes follow strict hygiene protocols and international quality standards, ensuring consistent product performance and user safety. Every batch undergoes rigorous quality checks before distribution to maintain reliability and trust.

With a strong domestic and international distribution network, we cater to wholesalers, retailers, healthcare providers, NGOs, and institutional buyers worldwide. We offer flexible packaging options, private labeling, and bulk supply capabilities to meet diverse market requirements.
