ABOUT US

Gir Dairy Farm is a professionally managed agri-dairy enterprise, established in 2025 and headquartered in Bundi, Rajasthan, India. The farm operates as a Manufacturer and Supplier of traditional dairy and cow-based products, serving customers across Pan India with a strong focus on purity, authenticity, and ethical practices.

We specialize in a range of natural products including Cow Urine, Wet Cow Dung, Fresh Milk Khoya, A2 Bilona Cow Ghee, and Round Cow Dung Cakes. Our offerings are widely used in dairy consumption, traditional cooking, agricultural applications, organic farming, wellness practices, and religious purposes. Each product is prepared following traditional methods while maintaining modern hygiene and quality controls.

At Gir Dairy Farm, animal welfare and sustainable farming are central to our philosophy. Our cows are nurtured in a clean, stress-free environment and fed a natural diet to ensure high-quality output. The A2 Bilona Cow Ghee is produced using the traditional bilona method, preserving nutritional value, aroma, and authentic taste. Cow dung and urine products are processed and handled hygienically for safe and effective use.

We maintain strict quality assurance measures at every stage—from animal care and milk extraction to processing, packaging, and distribution. Supported by a reliable supply chain, we ensure timely delivery and consistent quality across India.
