An expression around which all religions base their preaching. Peace of mind, body and soul. From time immemorial, man and God are one prayer - Shanti - for the living and the dead. The Char Dham, also called the Deo Bhumi - The Adobe of the Gods - presents the perfect setting in which the divine and the sublime coexist. There is only one of the quiet beauty and splendor that will take you into the world of spirituality that you experience true peace and humility. Nature in all its glory, the huge and overwhelming and yet humble in its exquisite beauty - a pilgrimage to Char Dhams experience that will stay with you and more.

Himalayan - mountain range in the world's most majestic and higher, is the world heritage of mankind as a whole. The quality of this sublime Adobe "Snow" has since time immemorial, inspired the sages and saints in India and has attracted tourists and pilgrims from around the world for its incredible beauty and quiet serenity. Uttaranchal abounds in places of sanctity where fans meet year to pay obedience to their Gods braving vagaries of weather and other vicissitudes of man in the Himalayas nearest to the celestial beings, devotees from all over the country have flocked to the shrines of Char Dham in the Himalayas -. Yamunotri, Gangotri, Kedarnath & Badrinath every year .. hello looking for the roads remain difficult in the ancient sanctuaries of faith for a performance experience of four Dham receive holy water in the form of four streams - Yamuna (Yamunotri), Bhagirathi (in Gangotri) , Mandakini (in Kedarnath) and Alaknanda (in Badrinath).

Kedarnath

Kedarnath, the picturesque holy town, is located in Uttarakhand's Rudraprayag District on the bank of River Mandakini. The town hosts Kedarnath Temple where Lord Shiva is worshipped in the form of lingam.

Hindus from all over the world visit the temple which is counted among:

- Four holy temples of chota chardham tours (Uttarakhand Char Dham)
- Panch Kedar (5 holy Shiva temples in Uttarakhand)
- Twelve Jyotirlingas (shrines where Lord Shiva is worshipped as a pillar of light)
- 275 Paadal Petra Sthalam (holy abodes of Lord Shiva in Asia)

Located at 3,584 m. above the sea level, Kedarnath is the remotest of the four Himalayan char dhams (other three being Badrinath, Gangotri and Yamunotri). Chorabari Glacier, which acts as the source of River Mandakini, is located nearby. Kedarnath has mesmerizingly divine ambience guarded by snow-capped peaks and cool climate dominated by gentle breeze.

Badrinath

The most sacred Hindu pilgrimage cradled by mountains Nar and Narayan, with the magnificent Neelkanth peak behind the glamorous, is the most sacred of all Hindu pilgrimages, Badrinath. On the left bank of the river Alaknanda, Badrinath place is called because it was once a sweet badris "or wild berries. Legend When asked about the river Ganges to descend on earth to help suffering humanity, the earth was too feeblw to force tis descent. The great river has been divided into two different channels, one of which is Alaknanda, which later became the abode of Lord Vishnu or Badrinath.

Yamunotri

Goddess Yami (also known as Yamuna or Yamini) resides on the earth in the form of River Yamuna, which begins its journey at Yamunotri, a holy town located in Uttarkashi district of Garhwal Himalayas. Yamunotri Temple at the foothill of Kalind Parvat (a sacred mountain dedicated to God Surya or Sun, father of Yamuna) is visited as a part of char dham destinations, each located in Uttarakhand State. The place located at a height of about 3,250 m. above sea level flaunts splendid beauty and offers wonderful trekking opportunities apart from temples, thus inviting nature lovers, pilgrims and adventurers in huge numbers.

Yamunotri Temple and History The holy Yamunotri Temple is located on the banks of River Yamuna near to two hot water springs named Surya Kund and Gauri Kund. A black marble idol of Goddess Yami (who is also the twin sister of Yama, the God of death in Hindu mythology) is worshipped inside the temple. A popular tradition is to boil rice and potatoes in the water of hot springs and offer the same as prasada (religious offering) to the Goddess. Devotees first worship Divya Shila (divine rock) near the temple before entering the temple.

Gangotri

Gangotri the picturesque pilgrimage in the Himalayan hinterland is the holiest place in the Ganges, the river of life, touched earth for the first time. Located 99 km from the music Utrarkashi meters. A 3140 chapel dedicated to the goddess was built 250 years ago by Amar Bahadur Thapa, the Gorkha commander. According to mythology, Goddess Ganga - the daughter of heaven, manifested in the form of a river to absolve the sins of King Bhagirath's predecessors, following his severe penance of several centuries. Lord Shiva received into his matted hair to minimize the immense impact of his fall.

Came to be called Bhagirathi at her legendary source. Gangotri Pilgrimage Tour, the physical source of a sacred river is Gaumukh, 18 km. further upstream, along the Gangotri glacier. Many pilgrims trek up to provide a source of prayer, either on foot or ponies. The verdant valleys, dense forests and mountains offer excellent opportunities for trekking and mountaineering adventure fans.
