WEAR IT TO FEEL IT

Since the beginning of the pandemic, we have all experienced intense emotional changes. There is a growing consumer demand to manage various emotional states. Our expertise in Essential Oils has shown us that Fragrances have the ability to act as a personal shield to manage emotions. We understand the power of scents to incite emotions especially ‘positive emotions’.

Before buying a fragrance ask yourself, “how do you want the fragrance to make you feel?”

If you have the answer, we have a solution.

We have targeted various Emotional Dimensions to address with each of the fragrances

Attractive | Desired | Happy | Refreshed

BREW is an answer for an emotional need of the consumer and not just a perfume. The formulation is especially ‘brewed’ for your personal emotional state. If you wish to feel two emotions at the same time, you may even create your own ‘Brew’ by mixing or layering two fragrances.

Remember-

Wear It, to Feel It.
