

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR EPCG LICENCE & EXPORT OF DEFECTIVE PARTS

Following documents are required for preparing CE certificate for EPCG licence of Govt. of India

1. Scanned copies of PAN and IEC
2. Website address of applicants if available
3. CA certificate certifying last 3 years exports , if available
4. Details of export products , to which capital goods , which have to be imported are related
5. Step wise flow chart specifying clearly as to where the capital good to be imported , will be utilized
6. Brief justification of quantity of capital goods required to be imported and whether there is process/production requirement of quantity

Following documents are required for preparing CE certificate for exporting part/equipment for repairs and return after repairs

1. EXPORT INVOICE of part/equipment being sent for repairs ; export invoice must state name of capital good of which this part belongs , serial number/identification number of part/equipment and Bill of entry for home consumption details of capital good
2. IMPORT INVOICE of capital good of which the part/equipment has become defective
3. Bill of entry for home consumption of capital good
4. Any E mails exchanged with the repairers