About Us

Green Leaves International was established in the year 1998 in Karnataka, India. We are a manufacturer of jaggery and jaggery powder, Darjeeling tea, bamboo flooring and a lot more. Our products are manufactured according to the international quality standards because we deal with the various parts of the world.

Our products are free from any type of contamination and impurities due to which their demand is increasing in the market day by day. On the other hand, these are highly acceptable among customers for their rich aroma, high nutritious value, hygienic nature, mouth-watering taste, freshness and world-class standard. Also, we follow the ethics and principles of business that help us in performing transparent business deals.

As we deal with the products, our company takes care of their optimum quality. For this, we conduct a stringent quality test under the monitoring of our skilled quality inspectors to ensure the quality of our products.

We test these products as per international quality standards and parameters right from the procurement process to the final packaging of products. Also, we have a warehouse and packaging facility that helps us to store the products with complete safety and deliver them with premium quality packaging.

Choose us and order from our company at your required quantity today.
