About Us

Immortal Impex is in the diversified business of importing and exporting agricultural commodities like sunflower oil cakes, cottonseed cakes, crude sunflower oil, cottonseed de-oiled cakes, raw cashew nuts, soybean seeds, fresh avocado, etc. since 2021. The company also deals in agricultural chemicals like potassium chloride and potassium oxide.

At present, we stand at the forefront of the market for exporting products with the best possible quality standards. We have developed a strong supply-chain management system to ensure delivery within the required time frame and have adopted customer-friendly managerial practices to nurture a strong business relationship with our esteemed customers.

We have a reliable vendor base from where we source only quality products for our customers. We export our products at an extremely competitive cost. These efficiencies allow us to supply our customers with the highest standard of quality without compromising on value.

We maintain an adequate stock of every item and are capable to meet bulk orders. Furthermore, we also follow a standard packing process to ensure that the quality and authenticity of our commodities remain intact.

Our customer-centric approach and cordial relations with them are the key strengths of our company. We always strive to provide cost-effective products available to our customers while adhering to the quality standards of the services.

Our Company is managed and promoted by Mr. Asit Chaudhary. He is the guiding force behind the company's growth and possesses years of experience in exporting and importing. With his commitment and dedication and with the support of our dedicated employee base, we have shown a positive trend in our business operations.
