About us

At VRAJ BHOOMI MINES & MINERALS, we are the most prominent manufacturer and supplier of Kaolinite clay, silicate sands and bentonite lumps. We are established in Bhuj and ever since we were incepted in 2004, we have been consistent in catering to the diverse needs of our customers. We are actively engaged in mining our offered products for the last two decades.

All our offered products are manufactured by our adroit and experienced chemists who only count on high-grade ingredients. All the products we offer are widely acknowledged and accepted for being chemical-free, for having leak-proof packaging and for their 100% purity. Apart from this, we also offer all our products at a reasonable price.

MINERALS PROCESSING AS PER MARKET SINCERITY

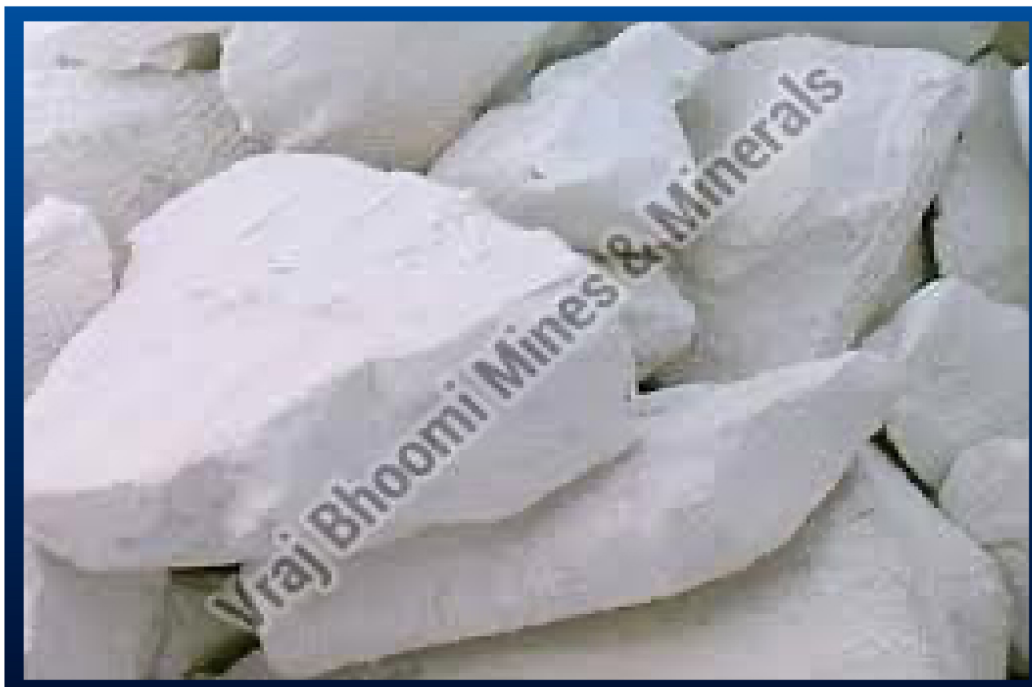

We always adhere to stringent quality standards when manufacturing our products. Also, during processing the products we only rely on top-quality raw materials that we procure from our mines. It is our vision to someday become the most preferred choice of our clients for our offered products in the marketplace with the help of our hard-working clients.

Our team members give their effort, hardwork, sincerity and dedication in turning our organization smooth functioning. Also, before delivering our products we make sure they undergo a check by the quality supervisors and managers. All of these factors have helped us establish a strong position in the present marketplace.
