ABOUT US

Established in 2008, Padmavathi Marketing has emerged as a leading name in the frozen food product wholesale industry in Bangalore, particularly in the Yelahanka area. This well-established business has earned a reputation for being a reliable one-stop destination, serving both local customers and clients from across the city. Over the years, Padmavathi Marketing has solidified its position in the industry, thanks to its commitment to providing top-notch products and services. The company's strong emphasis on customer satisfaction has helped it build a broad and loyal customer base that continues to grow steadily.

The team at Padmavathi Marketing comprises highly dedicated professionals who are passionate about their work. Each employee is committed to the company's vision and works tirelessly to achieve the shared goals of delivering quality and maintaining the highest standards of service. Their dedication plays a vital role in ensuring that the company maintains its leadership position in the frozen food wholesale industry while fostering lasting relationships with clients.

Strategically located in Yelahanka, Padmavathi Marketing is easily accessible to customers, thanks to its proximity to key transport links. The business operates from Padmavathi Nivas Agrahara, near Adi North Lake Apartments, making it a convenient and well-known destination for those in need of high-quality frozen food products. The company's location and ease of access have been crucial in attracting new customers and maintaining its strong market presence.

In addition to frozen food products, Padmavathi Marketing is also recognized for its diverse range of offerings, including sauces, mayonnaise, seasonings, frozen vegetables, cold storage services, spices, and dairy products. As the company looks to the future, it plans to expand its product line and services to cater to an even broader clientele, continuing its tradition of excellence in the wholesale market.
