About Us

Welcome to Ashok Industries, your trusted partner in the world of Foundation Drilling Tools and Conventional Piling Equipment. Since our establishment in 1992, we have been at the forefront of the industry, serving customers with top-quality workmanship and highly reliable products. Our headquarters are situated in the vibrant city of Navi Mumbai, India, and we take immense pride in our journey of over two decades.

At Ashok Industries, our core focus is on manufacturing and exporting a wide range of foundation drilling tools and equipment. Our product portfolio includes Ashok J. Waghela Conventional Piling Equipment and an extensive array of Horizontal Auger Drilling Tools. These tools encompass Augers, Drilling Buckets, Core Barrels, Continuous Flight Augers (CFA), Casings, Tremie Pipes, Kelly Bars, Horizontal Auger Cutters, Hand Augers, Mechanical Grabs, Dynamic Compaction Hammers, and Earth Augers.

We don't just offer products; we provide complete solutions for earth drilling. Our dedicated in-house designing and engineering team is available 24x7 to tailor solutions to your specific needs. With the backing of German and American engineers, we ensure that our products meet and exceed global standards of excellence.

Our manufacturing facilities span across 10,000 square feet in Navi Mumbai and an impressive 45,000 square feet in Khalapur. We have a wide range of automatic and semi-automatic machinery at our disposal, allowing us to maintain the highest levels of precision and quality in our production processes.

Our mission is clear: to grow exponentially, aiming for a 10x scale increase as opposed to the traditional 10% annual growth. We approach every opportunity with determination, constantly learning and striving for improvement. Our intelligent efforts are directed toward achieving our goals and satisfying our customers' evolving needs.

Our vision is to continuously update our technical expertise, embracing the latest technological advancements in our industry. We aspire to set standards that become benchmarks for quality and safety, ensuring that our high-performance tools lead the market.

At Ashok Industries, we are not just a manufacturer; we are a partner in your success. Thank you for choosing us, and we look forward to providing you with safe and high-performance tools that redefine excellence in foundation drilling and piling equipment.
