Quality Assurance

The coconut and groundnut oil that we are offering are made from high-grade coconut and groundnut materials. We only trust the most reputed vendors for procuring our raw materials for these oils. Apart from that our quality inspectors are also guided to perform checks on each and every batch of coconut and groundnut oil before it is sent out to our clients.

Our Unit

We have the right set of mills and other machines to extract oil from these raw materials. We maintain excellent hygiene in our manufacturing and warehousing unit to ensure that the quality of the oil is maintained. The mills are regularly examined and the machines are checked to make sure they are working properly for extraction of oil.
