About us

The foundation stone of the organization was laid down in the year 1905 by Sh. Jivanlal Kaniji Mistri at Palitana (Gujarat). Under the industrious efforts of Mr. Ratilal Jivanlal Mistri, the CEO of the organization, we have been successfully catering to the global market. Today, we are reckoned as one of the finest and few manufacturers of best quality harmonium reeds.

Infrastructure

We are backed by a sound infrastructural base that is well furnished with advanced technology machines and equipments. Our well-equipped infrastructural base is divided into various sections to assure smooth production. We also procure raw material from trusted sources for ensuring hassle free operation at the time of production.

Team

Dedication and enthusiasm are the terms that can describe our team of professionals. We owe the success of the company to our experienced team, which is well versed with every aspect of production of Harmonium Reeds. They also keep themselves abreast of changing needs of the customers and meet their specific requirements.

Why Us?

There can be several reasons for why choosing over the other reeds manufacturers, but the foremost one is our experience of more than a century. Apart from that, the reeds manufactured by us are unanimously popular all across the nation and their demand is increasing with every passing. Various renowned harmonium reed manufacturers have appreciated the reeds offered by our company.

The Quality

The choosing of raw material and its use in production is the first crucial stage in production of Reeds. With the experience of more than 100 years, we choose best raw material and cast it with a special technique. In the second stage, The Reeds are fitted using skilled workmanship under strict supervision. In the final stage, the Reeds are finely tuned by the hands of experts applying A-440 tuning standards using various electronic-tune-examiners. Thus, we can make genuine brass reeds without any fault.

The Policy

From the beginning of the company, until today, it has been our policy to make research, produce and supply the superior quality brass reeds at affordable price.
