Our Vendors

We select our vendors after immense scrutiny of different factors. Some of the chief factors are production procedures, quality of the raw materials used, distribution network, current market position, bulk orders handling capability, and many more.

Warehousing & Packaging

We own a vast warehouse wherein we store the entire lot of products under the safest conditions. In addition, we pack the products using high-quality packaging materials ensuring safety during both handling and transit.

Delivery & Payment

We make sure to deliver the orders within the stipulated time frame as we are backed by hi-tech transit and logistics facilities. We also have a wide reach across the nation. In addition, we offer easy and safe payment modes to the customers for their convenience during payment process.
