ABOUT US

The graphic design of LeghornGroup's Logo recreates a heraldry style. The image is loaded with powerful symbolism of two legendary animals. The eye catching design focuses on the two mysterious and evocative animals on the logo:

The lion, symbol of bravery, strength and loyalty.
The snake, symbol of slyness and dishonesty.

The design captures the animals the moment before a conflict. At this tense moment the energies of the animals gather at breaking point signifying a moment of universal balance, between the light and dark energies similar to Yin (black) and Yang (white).

The battle between the two energies in endless, however there can only one winner:

Ubi maior, minor cessat, When something major takes over, the less important is disregarded.

The forces of nature and the power to overcome bad is at the foundation of the innovative spirit that characterizes the company.

Company Name

The logo carries the wording "LEGHORN", the English translation for the city of Livorno.

The origin of the company name dates back to 1978, the year the company was established.

That same year, four friends decide to embark on a journey towards a new business venture: Luciano Grapsa, Renato Porciatti, Claudio Gisonni and Marino Montanari all meet at Marino Montanari's house in Antignano, just outside Livorno, to choose the name of the future company that they would go on to set up together.
