A lush green tea plantation with rows of tea bushes. The tea leaves are vibrant green and some are showing signs of being plucked. The background is slightly blurred, emphasizing the tea plants in the foreground.

GREEN TEA

GREEN TEA PROCESS SOURCE & BENEFITS

Green Tea Process Source & Benefits

Green tea is made by withering tea leaves - and then steaming, rolling and drying them. It undergoes minimal processing, and contains 80-90% catechins and flavonols (10% of total flavonoids). The infused leaf is green, and the liquor is mild, pale green or lemon-yellow.

SOURCE AREAS

Darjeeling tea is unique with its Muscatel flavour (musky spiciness).

Assam Tea is rich, full bodied, deep-amber liquor with a brisk, strong and malty taste.

Nilgiri Tea has a briskness, exceptional fragrance and exquisite flavour

BENEFITS

Weight Loss, Anti aging, Control Blood Pressure & Diabetics

Stress Relief, Heals Cuts , Remove body odour, Level blood sugar

Reduce Cholesterol, immunity, Asthma, Ear Infection , liver disease, Flu and cold , Inhibits growth of Cancer cells

— BLACK TEA —

BLACK TEA PROCESS SOURCE & BENEFITS

Black Tea is fully fermented of the Tea production process

Black tea involves complete processing (i.e. aeration and withering). It has different levels of catechin (20–30%) and flavonoid content (theaflavins and thearubigins represent 10% and 50–60% of total flavonoids respectively). Black tea is by far the most common type of tea produced. The infused leaf has a dark brown colour and a sweet aroma.

SOURCE AREAS

Darjeeling tea is unique with its Muscatel flavour (musky spiciness).

Assam Tea is rich, full bodied, deep-amber liquor with a brisk, strong and malty taste.
