About Us

New SSP Marketing is a firmly established organization from Virudhunagar (Tamil Nadu) that is engaged in the trade of a variety of tender coconuts. We are known as a reliable supplier (wholesaler) of different kinds of tender coconuts like green tender coconut, red tender coconut, and brown tender coconut. All these varieties of coconuts belong to organic farms, where these are grown without any harmful chemicals and fertilizers. We can provide all these coconuts in medium to bulk quantities and at competitive prices. We understand the consumers' requirements in the best manner, and thus serve superior products in good quality packaging materials.

Incorporated in 1998, New SSP Marketing has become a prominent name, owing to its organic products and reliable services. Our company's operations are managed by a resourceful and enterprising individual i.e. Mr. R Sivakumar, who is the Founder of the organization. We are acknowledged for catering to ever-changing industry demands with utmost care and fine offerings.

• Why Us

Reasons for which, our products are widely acclaimed by many clients are listed below:

- ~ We have a skilled workforce to bring forward top class products
- ~ Our quality auditors check our products to provide zero defects
- ~ We make timely delivery of every order to the clients.

• Quality Assurance

Quality is our company's forte and we never compromise with that. To ensure that, we have a team of experienced quality auditors, who check the product's quality thoroughly on several parameters. They make sure that only the finest quality products are supplied from our end.
