Welcome to Kamala Trading Co, one of Kolkata, West Bengal's top industrial scrap traders. Our area of expertise is the recycling and trade of different kinds of industrial waste materials. We have established ourselves as a trustworthy and dependable partner for companies looking for sustainable scrap management solutions. This is because of our considerable experience and knowledge in the sector.

Our commitment to achieving a greener, more sustainable future is unwavering. We are aware of the significance of ethical waste management and the benefits to the environment it may provide. Industrial scrap is appropriately treated and recycled by our committed staff, minimising its negative effects on landfills and lowering the demand for raw material extraction.

Reliable Supply Chain Management

As a well-known trader in industrial scrap, we are aware of the value of a solid supply chain. Since we have solid relationships with trustworthy suppliers, we can count on a regular stream of discarded materials. Our stringent quality control procedures ensure that the junk we trade meets the strictest requirements, giving our clients confidence and peace of mind.

Customer Satisfaction

Our company concept is built upon putting the needs of our clients first. By providing great service and establishing enduring connections based on dependability and trust, we try to go above and beyond the expectations of our clients. Our committed team of experts is always prepared to help our clients with their unique scrap requirements, offering customised solutions and timely support.
