

Omkar International Trade

We are delighted and proud to present to the world as One of India's purest Ghee and Jaggery Manufacturing companies.

We are acknowledged as a reputed manufacturer of pure milk products successfully trading across the entire country. We supply premium quality buffalo ghee, cow ghee and desi ghee. In the jaggery segment, we have jaggery blocks, cubes & powder and liquid jaggery. Even our jaggery is pure, obtained from organically grown palm trees.

About Our Company

Omkar International Trade is delighted and proud to present to the world as One of India's purest ghee and jaggery manufacturing companies. We engaged in the trade of manufacturing pure desi ghee from the purest milk that is available in all of Pune in Maharashtra.

We are acknowledged as a reputed manufacturer of pure milk products successfully trading across the entire country. We supply premium quality buffalo ghee, cow ghee and desi ghee. In the jaggery segment, we have jaggery blocks, cubes & powder and liquid jaggery. Even our jaggery is pure, obtained from organically grown palm trees.

All our products are processed at our state-of-the-art manufacturing unit that is equipped with the latest machinery. Every step is carried out mechanically without any human contact to avoid any kind of contamination.

Our production is not only supported by a well-equipped plant, but also by a team of expert and experienced professionals, who are all pros in the field. After the production procedure is over, we have our in-house quality control checks where every item manufactured on our premises go through it. Only when we are satisfied that it is market-ready, we release our products. This is to ensure that we have only premium quality products from Omkar International Trade circulating in the market.

Here we have the support of our founder, Mr. Omkar Walunj, who takes extra care to make sure that only the best is given to all of India from our manufacturing unit.
