OUR SPECIALTY

Because we are the manufacturer of these products, we can bring them to you at reasonable wholesale prices. Our signature pieces include dream catchers and malas created from sacred tulsi, crystals and gemstones, and other revered materials.

Our products feature high-quality precious and semi-precious gemstones and crystals from Rajasthan, India, with high clarity. Many are hand-faceted to allow light to reveal the beauty of the raw materials. We guarantee that they are all natural and untreated, never reconstituted from dust or alloyed with other materials.

MATERIALS AND SOURCES

- * We acquire the sacred tulsi beads used in our malas and jewelry directly from the holy places of Mathura, India. Each bead is individually carved in the ancient tradition and naturally polished with beeswax. No artificial dyes are used. An array of brown shades results from immersion in natural desi ghee.
- * We bring our rudraksha beads directly from Nepal.
- * Sandalwood and carved beads from other healing woods are hand crafted by master artisans.
- * Our dream catchers showcase the beauty of natural stones and crystals in fine macramé work.
- * We offer a variety of macramé and knotted products, each item is uniquely designed and produced by an individual artist with a signature unique style.
- * Free Worldwide Shipping.
- * A unique set of quality products that you won't find elsewhere, inspired by our personal travels throughout India and our own passion for ethnic arts and crafts.
- * We enthusiastically accept requests for custom designs with gemstones, wooden beads, 925 Silver, brass, and aluminum.
