

BHAGYWAN FOOD AND SPICES

Every single raw material that enters into our unit in Delhi is sorted, washed, cleaned and dried before they are processed. Thus we can assure you of our quality wholeheartedly because the entire procedure from purchasing to the final step of packaging is within our control. And in the purchase of raw materials, we ensure that there are multiple vendors so that quality can be assured and kept in our control. We make no compromises here.

Year of Establishment

With all the blessings of nature in hand, we at Bhagywan Food and Spices have brought to the world the abundant blessings of nature in the form of our spices that are ground into powders and various masalas that are manufactured in variation.

You can trust our products and consume them without fear of contamination or food poisoning because we implement the best quality of raw materials. Every single raw material that enters into our unit in Delhi is sorted, washed, cleaned and dried before they are processed. Thus we can assure you of our quality wholeheartedly because the entire procedure from purchasing to the final step of packaging is within our control.

And in the purchase of raw materials, we ensure that there are multiple vendors so that quality can be assured and kept in our control. We make no compromises here. Every item is tested in our in-house research facility before they are utilized. They are again passed through stringent quality control checks after the processing is complete. Thus we can give full commitment to our customers when it comes to quality.

With a team that is fully trained and experienced, we have absolutely no problems in assuring that we have given our very best to all our patrons. We hope to continue with this in the years to come.
